

THE RELIGIOUS LIFE INSTITUTE

Sponsored by the Conference of Religious of England and Wales and Heythrop College

INVITES YOU TO AN INTRODUCTORY STUDY DAY

'For you and for all': Religious Life Transforming Symbols led by

GREGORY COLLINS OSB

and facilitated by

KATHLEEN MCGHEE SND

President, Conference of Religious of England and Wales

10.00 - 4.00

Saturday October 18th 2008, Heythrop College, London

or

Saturday March 7th 2009, St. Anne's Hall, Manchester

This interactive day launches a new initiative for religious seeking a renewed theological understanding of consecrated life in the third millennium. Limited numbers, entrance by ticket only (see form below).

Gregory Collins OSB is a native of Belfast. He has been a monk of Glenstal Abbey for nineteen years, including four as headmaster of the Abbey school. He taught Byzantine Studies at Queen's University and was director of the Monastic Institute at Sant' Anselmo, Rome. He is the author of the bestsellers The Glenstal Book of Icons and Come and Receive Light.

APPLICATION FORM

Cost of the day £15.00 per person, including lunch and coffee. Initially applications are limited to two members per congregation for each day. Enquiries about further places should be addressed to Sister Maureen Connor: RLI@heythrop.ac.uk

Participants will be expected to take an active part in the theological reflection of the day.

NAME.....

CONGREGATION.....

ADDRESS.....

EMAIL.....

TELEPHONE.....

I am applying for the day in LONDON on OCTOBER 18TH/MANCHESTER on MARCH 7TH (please circle)

Tickets on receipt of cheque payable to: RELIGIOUS LIFE INSTITUTE

Please return this form with your cheque by Friday 26 September (London) or Friday 30 January (Manchester) to: Sister Maureen Connor, Religious Life Institute, Heythrop College, Kensington Square, London W8 5HQ